

Italy: Global Junior Challenge

Are you curious to know the finalists of the seventh edition of the Global Junior Challenge? You will have to wait the closing event on 28-30 October when each finalist will have a stand to present his/her project and make connections with others. There will be innovative projects, workshop to follow and a free Hackathon for civil and social innovation, subscribe now to the event if you are interested!

Final event of the Global Junior Challenge, international competition on innovative use of modern information technology in education and training of young people, was held on 30th October at the Campidoglio, the town hall of Rome. The winners were awarded by Alfonso Molina, Professor of Technology Strategy at the University of Edinburgh and Scientific Director of the Fondazione Mondo Digitale.

The projects that have conquered the podium:

category "under 10 years" - Réseau d'écoles RobotiCamp, Campus Lab - RobotiCamp, Corsica category "under 15 years" - Class BYOD, IC Parco della Vittoria, Rome category "under 18 years" ex-aequo - Teachers Aid - students alongside professor for new technologies, Liceo scientifico e Linguistico of Ceccano; Get Ready, Nathalie Tekam, Cameroon category "under 29 years" - Ardufonino, David Aloisi, Rome category "ICT for the integration of young people into work" ex-aequo - 3 / Fun Design, Talking It Global, Taiwan; FabriQ, City of Milan category "ICT for sustainable development of the environment" - Climate for Children, FON University, Macedonia category "ICT for the integration of migrants and refugees" - A Mundzuku Ka Hina, Mozambique Association Basilicata, Basilicata, Mozambique special category "Applications for civic and social innovation" - A tied: iEarn, iEarn Italy, Terni; Augmented reality as learning environment, Maidu Varik, Estonia
